

Carolyn is one of our aerial silks instructors and has been certified in group fitness since 2005. Her training in aerials began in 2009, and she has performed on aerial silks and lyra in several shows at various venues in Central Florida.

In order to maintain and improve her skills, she continues to work on a weekly basis with a number of other professional aerialists.