

Mr. Daniel Hohagen was born in Sao Paulo, Brazil and has enjoyed an internationally- acclaimed career in dance, performing, and choreography. At the age of 10, he started his Classical Musical Studies and became a professional ballet dancer by 16 years old. Mr. Hohagen has danced in more than 12 professional companies, including The National Ballet of Caracas Teresa Carreño, and has participated in multiple festivals including the Wolf Trap Festival Washington, Aspen Dance Festival, Festival international de Montpellier France, and Festival de otoño de Madrid. Having worked professionally in North America, Central America, and Europe- Mr. Hohagen brings his teaching and ballet expertise to students at RSD.