

Miss Candace

Candace began dancing at the age of three, studying ballet, pointe, jazz, tap and acrobatics throughout her childhood. During high school, she was a dance class assistant for four years. She continued her studies at the University of Florida and the Joni Messler Studio of Dance and was a guest performer with the Gainesville Ballet Theatre. After graduating she moved to Orlando where she has taught adult barre fitness classes children's and adult classes at Orlando Ballet.

